I am thrilled to be speaking to you as the new President of the Alumni Association. I have served on the Alumni Board for 5 years and have enjoyed my time continuing my connection to the College of Pharmacy. This board has given me the opportunity to open new doors and connect with alumni, students and faculty at the college. When I was offered this new position, I jumped at the chance to continue these connections and hope to make new ones along the way.

As a background, I am a graduate of the College of Pharmacy, Class of 2011. I originally started working in the field as a pharmacy technician in 2004 and have continued ever since. I currently have the privilege of working with the patients and physicians at the University of Utah Greenwood Clinic as a community pharmacist. I have also worked as a clinical pharmacist at Molina Healthcare and a community pharmacist at Dan’s Pharmacy. I chose to be a pharmacist for many reasons, but none more than to better the health of those around me through medication education and access to quality healthcare. I am happy to know my career choice has given me the chance to complete these goals I’ve set for myself.

As the new President, I plan to further our goals and continue to create networking opportunities for our Alumni. Every year we have great activities like the Alumni Banquet, football tailgate and the golf tournament. These events not only help reconnect everyone with the college, but also give much needed support to the current students of this great institution. The money generated from our events has provided several scholarships to deserving students and I know we will continue this tradition for years to come. I hope to see many of you at these events in the future and look forward to another great year at the U. GO UTES!

Kevin Walkenhurst, Class of 2011
Alumni Association President
Introducing CoP Stories, a series in which we get to know the intriguing individuals who make the University of Utah College of Pharmacy unique. We will be highlighting students, faculty, alumni, and anyone else who positively impacts our school in order to learn about their experience within the college. We are talking to Chaz Washington, class of 2012 alumnus. Chaz is a great example of an involved alum, and a student who turned a PharmD paired with a MBA into a rewarding and distinctive career in Managed Care.

“EXPERIENCE AS MANY NEW THINGS AS POSSIBLE, CHALLENGE YOURSELF, AND TRY NOT TO STICK TO THE STATUS QUO”
The 7th Annual Pharmacy Day on Capitol Hill was held on Tuesday, February 13, 2018. Pharmacy Day on Capitol Hill (formerly called “Legislative Day”) is a day-long event where pharmacists, University of Utah pharmacy students, and pharmacy technicians gather at the Utah State Capitol to advocate for the profession of pharmacy. The day’s activities include:

- Various health screenings provided to legislators, staff, and the general public (blood pressure, cholesterol levels, blood glucose, and pulmonary function tests).
- Vaccination education and administration.
- A Declaration by the Governor regarding Pharmacy Day on Capitol Hill and an introduction of the pharmacy profession on the Senate Floor and House of Representatives Floor.
- Individual meetings with your own personal legislators
- Multiple opportunities to speak directly with legislators to voice your opinions about proposed and upcoming legislation impacting pharmacy.
- Pharmacy student poster presentations about various ways that pharmacists provide care.

This great advocacy event has been growing in attendance over the past few years, but certain members of our profession have been under-represented in the past, especially technicians and pharmacists. There is power in numbers and every attendee helps reinforce the message. By attending Pharmacy Day on Capitol Hill, you can: express your opinion, demonstrate and explain the great services that pharmacy is providing, and learn more about the legislative process that impacts our

We would like to thank all of those who supported this year’s 10th Annual Pharmacy Gala and Charity Auction! Because of the generosity of all those who supported the event, the College of Pharmacy, along with an anonymous matching donor, raised $28,703 for the Maliheh Free Clinic. In addition to the $28,703, we raised another $5,000 to support student community outreach to rural areas in Utah. We are all so grateful and thank you for your support this year and hope you will join us at next year’s Gala!

Maliheh Free Clinic does crucial work for Salt Lake City and beyond by providing free medical services for uninsured and low-income individuals and families to help reverse the cycle of poverty and suffering created by poor health. We believe in Maliheh’s mission of providing fair and accessible healthcare to all... no matter the patient’s income, status, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, etc.

The University of Utah College of Pharmacy’s support is one of the cornerstones of the Maliheh Free Clinic. The clinic would not exist today, if not for the selfless dedication of our volunteers and our student leaders! To learn more about their mission or to make a donation, visit https://malihehfreeclinic.org/.

Sincerely,
The 10th Annual Pharmacy Gala and Charity Auction Committee
The 2018 Alumni Association Golf Tournament was held on Tuesday, June 5th at Stonebridge Golf Club in West Valley City. Forty-four players enjoyed a beautiful day of breakfast, golfing, and an awards lunch where tournament awards and raffle prizes were presented.

First place trophies were presented to Andrew Swindle, Ryan Oldroyd, Jeff Peterson, and Ryan Johnson with an incredible score of 47. Second place went to Trish Orlando, Bud Allred, Ted Young, and Alex Young with a score of 52. Raffle prizes were given out ranging from Golf Bags, clubs, restaurant gift cards, free rounds of golf, and pro shop gift certificates.

As this is a fundraiser for the Alumni Association, sponsors are also needed to make this event possible. We would like to thank Richard Ensign, Practice Pathways, Exclusive Appliance Installation, Inc., John Phillips, and the Dean’s Office for their generous contributions! Because of your participation and generous donations we were able to raise $1,825 for student scholarships! Thank you to all who came out and played. We appreciate your support and hope to see you next

The Honorary Alumnus Award is given to someone who demonstrates loyalty to the College of Pharmacy through volunteering, personal involvement, philanthropy, or additional forms of support and positively reflects the aims and the academic mission of the College of Pharmacy. We are pleased to award Marty Malheiro as our 2018 Honorary Alumnus.

Marty demonstrates all of these qualities and more! She has worked for the Utah Poison Control Center for over 15 years and even after she retired as the Outreach Education Coordinator, she stayed on to work as a consultant part time. She was awarded the Utah Business Health-care Hero for Community Outreach in 2013 and our students, faculty, and alumni couldn’t agree more. Our pharmacy community has been positively affected by her passion and drive to educate the public and our students on poison prevention. She has dedicated her life to pharmacy through her work, her volunteering, and her philanthropy when she started the Marty Malheiro Scholarship Fund. We feel lucky to have someone like Marty work within the walls of the College of Pharmacy and are proud to name her our 2018 Honorary Alumnus.
The Wolf Prize, established in 2000 by Drs. Harold H. and Joan S. Wolf in memory of Dr. Harold Wolf’s parents, John and Bertha Wolf, is the highest award the University of College of Pharmacy can bestow upon a Doctor of Philosophy Student. The Wolf Prize recognizes excellence in teaching by PhD candidates from any department and is awarded to a student who has demonstrated an aptitude for and inclination toward an academic career. Congratulations to Dr. Casey Tak on being the 2018 recipient of the Wolf Prize.

During Casey’s time as a graduate student in the Department of Pharmacotherapy, he has published 10 peer-reviewed publications, three of which as first author. He has presented his research at numerous academic conferences, including the International Society of Pharmacoeconomics and Outcomes Research (ISPOR), Academy of Managed Care Pharmacy, American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, and the Western Pharmacoeconomics Conference. His dissertation, which focuses on barriers to zoster vaccination in older adults, was supported by the Skaggs Institute for Research and the American Foundation for Pharmaceutical Education.

In addition to research, Casey has dedicated time during his graduate training to academic service. He has served as secretary and vice president of the University of Utah student chapter of ISPOR. He has also served as the graduate student representative from the Department of Pharmacotherapy and was a part of the student committee for Retention, Promotion, and Tenure (RPT). Finally, as a result of his scholarly work, he has been asked to peer review for several academic journals. For Casey, being a peer reviewer is a privilege as he is able to contribute his knowledge to the rigor of the broader scientific community.

Casey has demonstrated a commitment to fostering the next generation of clinicians and scientists. As a graduate student, he has guest-lectured in the PharmD curriculum, including sessions on health policy, pharmacoeconomic literature evaluation, and women’s health. Casey has also worked extensively with pharmacy students and residents, serving as a team member and consultant on multiple trainee research projects. He is also currently an adjunct instructor at Westminster College, where he has taught courses in Program Planning and Evaluation and SAS Programming. Much as the Wolf Prize was designed to recognize, Casey is passionate about teaching and mentoring students. He is honored to be this year’s recipient of the Wolf Prize.

We are proud to welcome the Class of 2018 into the Pharmacy work force. Below is the data we have collected as of August 1, 2018. We have a handful of students who are still studying hard for the NAPLEX and have not self-reported their job placement. If you are looking to hire a new pharmacist, please contact Danielle Keddington (Danielle.keddington@pharm.utah.edu) and she will distribute the information to our recent grads.

LEGACY SCHOLARSHIPS

The Pharmacy Legacy Scholarship began with the entering class of 2012. It is awarded to an incoming student whose parent or grandparent graduated from the University of Utah College of Pharmacy. This year we have four students who received this award.

Daniel Donaldson is in the Class of 2022 and his mother, Mary Ellen Donaldson, graduated from the College of Pharmacy in 1981.

Clayton Carter is in the Class of 2022 and his grandfather, Owen Higgs, graduated from the College of Pharmacy in 1956.

MacKenzie Stout is in the Class of 2022 and her mother, Bonnie Stout, graduated from the College of Pharmacy in 1989.

Emily Sorenson is in the Class of 2022 and her mother, Susan Sorenson, graduated from the College of Pharmacy in 2002.
EVELINE BRUENGER

The University of Utah College of Pharmacy’s honorary alumnus Eveline Bruenger passed away on April 23, 2018. In 2014, Eveline was made an honorary alumnus of the College of Pharmacy as her positive involvement influenced many throughout the years. As a donor, she supported research and scholarships while giving generously to the L.S. Skaggs Jr. Pharmacy Research Building. Not only did Eveline support the College of Pharmacy, but she also gave to many other U Health entities. This multifaceted generosity made her a unique donor, in that she gave beyond her college and supported various areas of University of Utah Health as a whole. Eveline will be deeply missed by many at the College of Pharmacy and beyond. Gladly, her legacy will continue far into the future as she established the Fred W. and Eveline Bruenger Endowed Scholarship at the College of Pharmacy. Thanks for your incredible impact on our school, Eveline!

ERIC MACK

The University of Utah College of Pharmacy lost alum, donor, and friend, Eric Mack, on May 5, 2018. He was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island, with a Bachelor of Science in the School of Pharmacy; and the University of Utah with a Ph.D. in Pharmaceutical Kinetics in 1988. Dr. Eric Mack devoted his career to schools of pharmacy, including: University of Houston, Loma Linda University, and most recently, University of California, Sacramento. He was dedicated to the success of his students, and the professionalization of careers in pharmacy. Dr. Mack was a proud donor to the College of Pharmacy, especially to the Department of Pharmaceutics in support of graduate students. He will be missed by the Pharmacy community.
