

To Submit Application

Email the following documents to the Fellowship Program Directors for consideration:

Curriculum Vitae (CV)

Letter of Intent

Letters of Recommendation

Three letters written by professional references familiar with the applicant's pharmacy experience

Application Deadline

January 1, 2023

Contact Information

Fellowship Program Co-Director Department of Pharmacotherapy, Chair

Daniel M. Witt, PharmD, FCCP, BCPS
dan.witt@pharm.utah.edu
30 South 2000 East
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

Fellowship Program Co-Director

Sara R. Vazquez, PharmD, BCPS, CACP
sara.vazquez@hsc.utah.edu
30 South 2000 East
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

Thrombosis Service, Manager

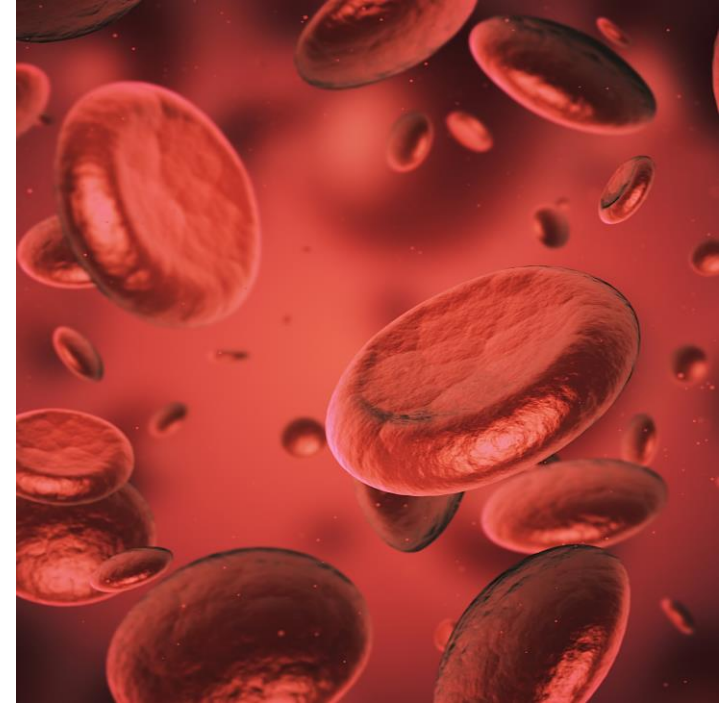

Ryan Fleming, PharmD, DPLA, CACP
ryan.fleming@hsc.utah.edu
6056 South Fashion Square Drive
Murray, UT 84107

Current Clinical Research Fellow

Aaron S. Wilson, PharmD
aaron.wilson@pharm.utah.edu
30 South 2000 East
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Clinical Anticoagulation Research Fellowship

University of Utah
College of Pharmacy
Department of Pharmacotherapy

-
University of Utah Health
Thrombosis Service

Benefits

- Competitive annual salary
- Health insurance eligible
- Generous paid time off (PTO) and all holidays off
- Scholarship eligible for Master's program related to fellowship responsibilities*
- Hybrid work model allowing for flexibility with remote/in-office work

* Previous fellows have participated in Master's programs related to clinical investigation and biomedical informatics, though alternate options may be considered

Fellowship FAQs

- Obtain meaningful clinical experience, research development skills, academic involvement opportunities, and personal/professional growth
- Gain research development and implementation skills through involvement in professional research teams
- Participate in local, national, and international research efforts
- Publish study results and articles in renowned healthcare journals
- Two-year fellowship duration
- Staffing component with the University of Utah Health Thrombosis Service (avg. 8 hr/week) following 8 weeks full-time training; Occasional weekend on-call shifts (avg. 6 weekends/year)
- Travel and registration covered for professional conferences such as ACCP, AC Forum, ISTH, and more

Applicant Requirements*

- Graduate from an ACPE accredited college of pharmacy
- Minimum pharmacy GPA: 3.5
- Eligible for Utah licensure within 60 days after start of program

* Requirements may be waived under extenuating circumstances as deemed by the fellowship program directors.

Potential Future Careers

Academia/Education
Ambulatory Care Pharmacist
Anticoagulation Management Service
Clinical Investigative Research
Medical Science Liaison
Pharmacy Informaticist
Population Health Representative
Research Coordinator
Research Data Scientist/Engineer

Current/Previous Fellows

Aubrey E. Jones, PharmD, MS
October 2017 – October 2019

John A. Saunders, PharmD
July 2019 – July 2021

Aaron S. Wilson, PharmD
July 2021 – Present

