WHY CHOOSE THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH?

- Faculty includes nationally recognized researchers, scholars, and practitioners
- Employers recognize our graduates as leaders and professionals who provide quality patient care and deeply understand pharmaceutical science
- Access to state-of-the-art campus resources:
  - Spencer S. Eccles Health Sciences Library
  - University Writing Center, eTutoring, Online Writing Lab
  - University Counseling Center

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
L. S. SKAGGS PHARMACY INSTITUTE
30 South 2000 East, Salt Lake City, UT 84112
PharmD.Admissions@pharm.utah.edu
(801) 581-7046 | pharmacy.utah.edu

UofUCollegeofPharmacy
@UofUPharmacy
University of Utah College of Pharmacy
UofUCOP

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
One of the Most Advanced and Scenic Campuses in the World.

IMAGINE
Residency: Utah residency not required, however residency does impact tuition. Visit admissions.utah.edu/apply/residency to learn more.

REQUIRED PREPHARMACY COURSEWORK
Applicants should complete the general education requirements of their college or university prior to beginning the PharmD program. Students should also complete the following required prepharmacy courses:

- General Chemistry I and II, with labs
- Organic Chemistry I and II, with labs
- Calculus
- Statistics
- Human Anatomy
- Human Physiology
- Professional/Technical Writing or Public Speaking
- Microbiology

APPLICATION TIMELINE
Applications are accepted between July 1 and February 1 for admission the following Fall. Admission dates are as follows:

- Early Assurance: October 3
- Priority Admission: December 3
- Late Admission: February 1

Please visit pharmacy.utah.edu/student-information for details about admissions requirements and the application process.